Our team of certified campus police officers and security professionals works diligently to prevent crime, respond to emergencies, and offer a variety of safety-related programs and services. This document outlines the resources available through CSS to help you stay safe on campus.

Services and Resources

Campus Police

The Westfield State University Police Department (WSUPD) is a sworn police agency with full law enforcement authority on all university property. Officers are on duty 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, providing patrol services, investigating crimes, and enforcing all state and local laws, as well as university regulations. Our officers are professionally trained and certified by the state, and they are committed to a community-oriented policing model. Patrols are conducted on foot, by bicycle, and in marked patrol vehicles to ensure high visibility and rapid response times.

Emergency Procedures

In the event of a campus-wide emergency, such as a natural disaster or active threat, the university will activate its Emergency Response Plan. Official information and instructions will be disseminated through the WSU Alerts system. This multi-platform system sends emergency notifications via text message, email, and voice call to all registered users. Additionally, alerts will be posted on the university's official social media channels and the university homepage. All students, faculty, and staff are automatically enrolled in this system. It is your responsibility to ensure your contact information is kept up-to-date in the university portal to receive these critical alerts.

Safety Escorts

For your safety and peace of mind, CSS offers a SafeWalk program. A uniformed security officer will escort you to any location on campus, including parking lots, residence halls, and academic buildings. This service is available $24\frac{1}{7}$ and is free of charge. To request a SafeWalk, simply call the CSS non-emergency line or use the WSU Safe mobile app. We recommend using this service when walking alone at night or if you ever feel unsafe.

Blue Light Phones

Emergency Blue Light Phones are strategically located throughout campus in high-traffic areas, parking lots, and along major pedestrian routes. These phones provide a direct, one-button connection to the CSS dispatch center. When you press the emergency button, the phone automatically identifies your location, allowing for a rapid police response. The blue light on top of the phone kiosk is illuminated $24\frac{1}{7}$, making it easy to spot from a distance. Use these phones to report emergencies, request assistance, or report suspicious activity.
